

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE HOLLOW YOUTH, HESSEY'S MOUNTAIN,
NATIONAL PARK.

LABOUR DAY PROCESSION IN BRISBANE.

The "Red Fly" (the "Red Fly" is the symbol of the Labour Day movement) is the symbol of the Labour Day movement.

The "Eight Hour" banner at the head of the procession on the day of the Labour Day procession.

The "Labour Day" banner at the head of the procession on the day of the Labour Day procession.

The "Labour Day" banner at the head of the procession on the day of the Labour Day procession.

THE SECOND LIGHT HORSE COME BACK

Returned Horse from Egypt marching through Queen-street.

The welcoming crowd in Albert Square.

Thalphoto

PEANUT GROWING BEHIND COOKTOWN.

F. G. Gifford, photo.

A Field of Peanut Plants.

This is one of the coming industries of Queensland. The nuts are now being used for lubricating oil production.

Taking of the field.

A machine for turning machines.

A home-made drenching and winnowing machine.

The Crop
Yields 20 tons to the acre and locally for 100 years for two crops a year.

DATE GROWING AS AN INDUSTRY FOR QUEENSLAND.

Picture shows date tree the date business is now being done in.

DATE PALM IN FLOW AT FARM YARD, BURLA.—(See page 2).

CLUSTERS OF DATE BLOSSOMS ON A TWO-YEAR-OLD PALM AT FARM YARD, BURLA.

"THE MAN WITH THE DONKEY," GALLIPOLI, 1915.

The statue, which appears in the group around the statue by Mr. J. H. Brown, is commemorated the remarkable achievement of a soldier, an army medical man, and his donkey, Maudie, who saved many lives in the Gallipoli campaign by their heroic bearing of shell fire.

THE NEW GRAND CLUB HOTEL, IN GEORGE STREET, BRISBANE.

"Kynsland," at the corner of George and Charlotte Streets, has recently been acquired by the Queen's Land and Survey Office, which has purchased it as a site for a new building. The building was the office of the "Queenslander" and the "Brisbane Courier" until the late war. It has since been converted as a building house.

—G. White photo.

ANOTHER MEMORIAL.

Memorial stone to the right of the statue, which is the house where the late Mr. J. H. Brown lived. The stone is in the garden grounds, and was erected in 1915.

